Cheap Lots.

The only cheap lots offered in Waco for the last five years are those now on the market in the Kirkpatrick Addition, East Waco. These lots are being sold for one-half their real value, making a chance to secure a desirable home such as will never occur again.

Cheap Lots.

These lots lie high and dry. They overlook a large portion of the city and have perfect drainage. They lie in the healthiest part of the city, catching the pure breezes from the prairie untainted by passage over any part of the city.

Cheap Lots.

These lots have the finest soil, a rich sandy loam, admirable for gardens, and are underlaid with pure water in inexhaustible quantities at a depth of fifteen and sixteen feet, which can be used for irrigation.

Cheap Lots.

These lots are closer to the center of the city than any other addition, and at the same distance lots are selling for three and five times the price asked for these. There is millions in it for persons of small means. Call on Mrs. or P. G. Kirkpatrick, southwest corner Eighth and Clay street.

All parties desiring plats of the Kirkpatrick addition can obtain them upon application.

LOCALETES.

Washington's birthday was celebrated as usual in grand style at Baylor University today.

The country is being flooded with literature of the "naughty-but nice" school. Or rather it is naughty and nasty without being nice.

There were three additions to the Christian church yesterday.

Waco has received a considerable increase of population in the last two or three months mostly from Ohio considerably from St. Joe Mo.

The excursions out to College Heights yesterday were immense. The Hobson cars carried passengers all day long and in the afternoon they were crowded to their full capacity. The new artesian well at the Heights was the great attraction and fire hair and rapid travel another.

The tiger of the Corderillas which has been frightening the Bosque is now reported to be lurking in the woods about Proctor Springs.

Pickled and spiced pigs feet 25 cents a dozen at J. A. Early's.

A venerable darkey from the Brazos bottom was in town on Saturday exhibiting to crowds of gaping darkeys on the square a petrified Indians foot. It was a monster stone and a first-rate imitation of a petrified foot. It was one of the bastard granite boulders which occur in this chalk section and take many strange and fantastic forms.

Look out for my big specialty sales Saturdays, J. A. Early.

Where will the daily fire be tonight?

Mrs. Jas F. Duncan of Bonham, Texas, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Honea Ninth and Cleveland.

Finest liquors for medical purposes at J. A. Early's.

Japanese plums are in bloom in the southern part of town in the sandy loam.

Catholic Fair Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at the grand building known as the Coke building near Eighth street. Lots of fun, make your arrangements to take it in all three nights.

The Mokauna of Waco is the credit system.

Am overstocked in preserves, finest line in the city, selling at cost. J. A. Early.

The lots in the Kirkpatrick addition are the cheapest ever offered in Waco.

Potatoes now sell at twenty-five cents a bucket. It is not the big crop or low freight rates but active competition that sells them for that price against forty and fifty cents the usual price for the last ten years.

New York seed potatoes genuine at J. A. Early's.

The fairs given by the ladies of the Catholic church are always enjoyable affairs. That which begins tomorrow night will be one of the best. It takes place in the Coke building and lasts three nights.

Genesee canned corn $1.20 per dozen at J. A. Early's.

Peas, radishes and lettuce are up in many gardens and adventurous fruit trees are slightly putting out a few blossoms.

Fine new suitings just in at Kirk & Reising. All the new styles and prettiest patterns. Call in and see them, they are going off very fast.

Finest California bottled wines, at 35 cents per quart, best bargain ever offered in Waco. J. A. Early.

The sale of bargains in dry goods and clothing has been a feature of Waco trade for two years, but it is only in the last few months that bargains were to be had in groceries. Housekeepers by keeping a close eye on specialties offered from time to time by the first-class grocers, advertising in THE NEWS, can often pick up big bargains both in specialties and staples.

Tra-La-La

In a few days a new book and periodical store will be opened up at 401 Franklin street, where lovers of Literature, Music and Art will find all the periodicals foreign and domestic, latest novels, sheet music and all the Tra-La-La's of a popular house. Keep your eye on the place and your memory on the number of O. T. Ridley's new stand.

You can't miss seeing T. M. Littlewood, England's great champion.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Congressman Bynum has decided not to run for governor of Indiana.

An old second-hand dealer in Kansas City, Kas., drove off two men who tried to rob him.

Chester (Ill.) penitentiary will soon have a pearl button and pearl jewelry department.

At Gainesville, Tex., Mrs. Williams arrested Sam Hayworth as he was making his fourth burglary on the Williams barn.

All the members in the French ministry resigned because of an adverse vote in the chamber of deputies on a clerical measure.

Near Goshen, Ind., the family of a sick man immersed him in the freezing water of a river. No cause is given for the deed.

Edward Parker Deacon, an American, shot and killed M. Abeille, whom he found in company with Mrs. Deacon in a hotel at Cannes, France.

Colored politicians had a secret conference in Birmingham, the object being to secure control of the Federal patronage and Republican politics of Alabama.

It has been found that the title to a good portion of Boonville, Mo., still remains in the government from a misapprehension in a location of the land made in 1817.

Fight with a Burglar.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 22.—A desperate hand-to-hand conflict with a burglar took place at the home of Captain Rhodewalde, in the north portion of Independence, and as a result John Rhodewalde has a cut in his left thigh six inches long and a quarter of an inch deep. John Rhodewalde and his brother William, both young men, occupy the same apartment. John was awakened by a lace curtain flapping in his face. Reaching out his hand he felt the window sash gone. He called his brother, and immediately the burglar seized him by the wrist with one hand and with the other tried to stop his mouth. Rhodewalde was placed at such a disadvantage that his struggles to break the burglar's grasp were ineffectual.

William Rhodewalde was awakened by the struggle, and made for the unwelcome visitor, who turned his attention to his new assailant. John also struck at the burglar, but only managed to hit his brother over the head several times. The burglar was getting the worst of the conflict when he whipped out a knife and made a vicious slash, with the probable intention of disemboweling John Rhodewalde. The thrust fell short, the knife entering the thigh, cutting a serious gash. The burglar then broke away from the boys and jumped out of the window. The whole affair consumed but a few moments.

Much-Married Murphy.

PADUCAH, Ky., Feb. 22.—A few months since Joseph Murphy came here from Illinois to reside. He soon met Martha Williams, and being a dashing middle-aged fellow, he won her heart and married her. In a few weeks the wife learned that Murphy had once been married, but there was nothing said as to how or when his wife died. Last week Murphy's first wife and two children came here, went to his home and without ado took possession.

Wife No. 2, understanding No. 1 was to stay but awhile, concluded to keep quiet and make the best of her predicament. To make time pass easier she planned a trip to relatives near by, and returned to find Murphy, wife No. 1 and children and all her possessions gone. Murphy, when he left here, said he would return to Chicago, and as he formerly lived there it is likely he did so. The man is of good figure and well educated, but attempted no work, though having money. His victim here had some means, all of which he got through his promises just after the marriage.

The woman Murphy treated so shabbily was herself from a neighboring village in Illinois, and she has been left in a very sad condition.

Labor Differences Settled.

OMAHA, Feb. 22.—In settlement of the troubles between the Union Pacific and its conductors and brakemen, Assistant General Manager Dickinson discussed the new schedule with the grievance committee. Mr. Dickinson expressed a willingness to concede to their demands for overtime, which is the most important point in the revised schedule and the minor issues will be compromised.
